THE MERRILL LYNCH CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL SERVICES AND MARKETS

Dr. George J. Papaioannou fingjp@hofstra.edu Director

Gioia P. Bales fingpb@hofstra.edu Center Administrator

“to promote and facilitate faculty and student study in the field of global finance and to communicate knowledge and information to the academic and business communities.”

THE MERRILL LYNCH CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL SERVICES AND MARKETS

Second Annual Roundtable Discussion on THE STATE OF ECONOMIC GLOBALIZATION

“New Forces in the Global Capital and Labor Markets: The Case of China and India”

The Scott Skodnek Business Development Center Second Floor, Axinn Library Room 246

Wednesday, April 21, 2004 6:15 - 8:30 pm

www.hofstra.edu/mlc
THE STATE OF ECONOMIC GLOBALIZATION

“New Forces in the Global Capital and Labor Markets: The Case of China and India”

PROGRAM

Opening remarks by moderator

George Papaioannou
Finance Department, Zarb School of Business and Director, MLC

PANELISTS

Walter Molano
Partner, BCP Securities
“Changes in Capital Flows”
The drivers in the flow of capital between Asia, the U.S., and the impact on the emerging markets.

K.G. Viswanathan and Edward Zychowicz
Finance Department, Zarb School of Business
“The Development and Performance of Financial Markets in China and India”
Overview of the growth, performance and trends in these markets; recent reforms and regulatory framework; movement toward liberalization. Foreign direct investment and portfolio flows.

James Neelankavil
Department of Marketing & International Business, Zarb School of Business
“India’s Emergence as A Powerhouse of Outsourcing in the Technology Sector”
The emergence of India as leader in technology related fields through cost effective solutions, high quality products and fast delivery; India as the target country for outsourcing in the software business.

David Flynn
Department of Management, Entrepreneurship, and General Business, Zarb School of Business
The concept of guanxi (etiquette for coherence and discourse) as a means of garnering social capital and maintaining legitimacy; how entrepreneurs and small businesses survive in the Chinese economy.

Open discussion from the floor