Welcome to International Slow Art Day 2020! The average museum visitor spends less than 30 seconds with each work of art. Why the rush? Slow Art Day is a grassroots movement to support museums and art galleries around the world by empowering museum visitors to change their art-viewing experience.

We invite you to VIRTUALLY engage in mindful looking allowing for deeper reflection and a greater understanding of the work. Hope to see you “there”!

1. Take your time now and look at these pieces for 5 minutes. Try not to judge and think about how the artists use color, light, patterns and motion.
