CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION CREDITS (CME)

ACCREDITATION:

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System and Hofstra University School of Law.

North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to sponsor Continuing Medical Education for physicians.

The North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System designates this educational activity for a maximum of 14 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

DISCLOSURE OF RELEVANT FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIP POLICY:

North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System relies upon faculty participants in its CME programs to provide educational information that is objective and as free of bias as possible. In this spirit, and in accordance with the guidelines of the program sponsor, faculty participants are expected to indicate any commercial relationship that might be perceived as real or apparent conflict of interest.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this CME activity, the participant should be able to:

- Better evaluate the effectiveness of laws designed to minimize conflict of interest and bias in the conduct and reporting of biomedical research.
- Better evaluate the reliability of data derived from industry financed research.
- Better evaluate the reliability of information derived from collaboration with the pharmaceutical industry.
- Better evaluate the reliability of industry sponsored medical education.

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CREDITS (CLE)

Hofstra University School of Law is an accredited New York State CLE Provider. New York CLE credits are available to satisfy the mandatory requirement, transitional and non-transitional, for attorneys attending the conference. Please advise the CLE service secretary at the registration desk if you wish CLE credit. The program consists of two sessions: Session I (October 4) and Session II (October 5). Credit will be given for each session. No credit can be given for partial attendance at a session. Lawyers admitted in jurisdictions other than New York should check with those jurisdictions to determine CLE requirements in their states. Scholarships are available: to apply contact Dawn Marzella at (516) 463-6889.
