Presidential Debate 2016

A resource for media professionals

With about 500 full-time faculty members, 92 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, we offer this guide as a sampling of the experts at Hofstra University who are available to speak with reporters, editors and producers about issues that are of importance during the 2016 presidential campaign cycle.

Because faculty schedules and availability can vary, media professionals are encouraged to contact a member of Hofstra’s Office of University Relations staff for assistance in contacting experts or arranging interviews and appearances.
