SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH:
THE PRIDE TAKES ACTION

Tuesday, April 3; Tuesday, April 10; and Thursday, April 12, 11 a.m.-1 p.m.
The Safe Center LI and Start by Believing Campaign
In the wake of the #MeToo movement, many people have asked what they can do to support survivors. For Sexual Violence Awareness Month, the Safe Center LI is asking that we #StartByBelieving. Through this social media campaign, we will be asking students to take the pledge and share why they think it is important to believe survivors of sexual violence.
Atrium, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Friday, April 6, 6-10 p.m.
Take Back the Night
Join us at Take Back the Night, where we come together to empower survivors with a speak-out about sexual assault, followed by a march around campus to protest sexual misconduct. Counselors from both the Student Health and Counseling Center and the Safe Center LI will be available.

Through My Head: An Art Exhibit by Hofstra Student D.K.
A series of mixed-media paintings about intrusive thoughts and scatterbrain. Some paintings are based on memories that bubble up or constantly gnaw at the back of the mind. There will be a closing ceremony on Friday, April 13, from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.
Room 117 Calkins Hall, South Campus

Thursday, April 12, 9 p.m.
Kinks and Fetishes Conversation With Dr. Dan and Danny
This sex-positive talk will be co-facilitated by Dr. Daniel Rinaldi and Hofstra student Danny. The focus of this community conversation will be on how everything and anything can be part of a sexual relationship between adults, as long as there are consenting partners who are on the same page! If you are interested in attending the event or would like to ask a question anonymously in advance, please email Dr. Rinaldi at Daniel.Rinaldi@hofstra.edu.
This event is sponsored by the Student Health and Counseling Center and Student Advocacy and Prevention Awareness.
Room 106 Student Health and Counseling Center, Wellness and Campus Living Center, North Campus

Tuesday, April 17, 4:30-6 p.m.
Drawing the Line: Accountability and the Arts
Join the Hofstra University community for a roundtable conversation regarding issues of power, gender, responsibilities, and the stature of artist vs. art raised by the #MeToo and Time's Up movements.
This event is sponsored by the Hofstra University Museum and the Center for Civic Engagement.
David Filderman Gallery, 10th Floor, Joan and Donald E. Axinn Library, South Campus

Thursday, April 19, 8-9:30 p.m.
Escalation Workshop
The Escalation Workshop is a powerful, film-based discussion that opens people's eyes to the warning signs of relationship abuse. The workshop consists of a screening of the film Escalation, followed by a guided discussion led by a trained facilitator.
This event is sponsored by the Athletics Department.
Multipurpose Room East, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Friday, April 20, 10:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
Yards for Yeardley
Walk, run, jog, row, roll (heck, even skip if you want to!) 1 MILLION YARDS with friends or on your own as a way to raise awareness and educate others about relationship abuse.
This event is sponsored by the Athletics Department.
Field Hockey Stadium, North Campus

Wednesday, April 25, 8-10 p.m.
Embrace Your Voice
Knowing the power of your voice is the first step. There are many ways to embrace your voice, from practicing or providing consent to speaking out against stereotypes or gender biases. Learning how to develop meaningful conversations that alter the perspective and culture of sexual violence is the next step. Join us for a panel discussion to raise your voice toward ending sexual assault.
This event is sponsored by Theta Tau and Alpha Epsilon Phi.
