

Qualified Default Investment Alternative (QDIA) Notice

Important Information

You are receiving this notice to inform you how your contributions under the plan(s) for the Hofstra University Pension Plan will be invested and how such contributions will continue to be invested if you have not provided your investment instructions. If you already have an investment election on file, no action is needed on your part.

How Will Your Contributions Be Invested

The Plan(s) let you invest your account in a number of different investment choices. If you have not chosen an investment option or options, your future contributions will be invested in the default investment option(s), as listed below. If the default investment option(s) changes at any time in the future, you will be notified.

Plan Name:	Default Investment Option:
Hofstra University Tax-Deferred Annuity Plan	Vanguard Target Retirement Funds
Hofstra University Pension Plan	Vanguard Target Retirement Funds

How You Can Change the Way Your Contributions are Being Invested:

You have the right to change the investment allocation of your account at any time. You can elect to direct the investment of your existing balances and future contributions to any of the plan's available investment options. This includes being able to transfer out of the plan designated default option(s) to another investment option available in the plan.

To change how your account is invested, among the plan's offered investment choices, you can contact TIAA at 800-842-2252. Consultants are available weekdays, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. (ET) or by accessing your account online at TIAA.org/hofstra.

Please Note the Following:

The link below is to the Fact Sheet which provides additional information, including the investment objectives and strategy, fund/account performance, risk and return characteristics, and fees and expenses. A list of the Plan's available investment options and a copy of the prospectus or information statement for each fund may be obtained from TIAA.org/hofstra.
