

THE CENTER FOR "RACE," CULTURE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE COLLOQUIA SERIES

"OF ALLIES AND STORYTELLING IN QUEER DIASPORAS"

Presented by Aashish Kumar,
*Professor of Television and Immersive Media,
Lawrence Herbert School of Communications*

"Body, Home, World: South Asian LG BTQ+ Journeys" is Professor Kumar's interactive documentary on the unique journeys of immigrant families and queer communities of color.

This talk will feature a discussion on the role of allies, decolonial presentation of global queer stories, and how affordances of modern media allow marginalized stories to be produced and distributed.

This event is open to the public. Advance RSVP required. Visit events.hofstra.edu to register.

Professor Kumar's interactive documentary can be accessed at bodyhomeworld.com.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2021

1 p.m.-2:25 p.m.

Studio A, Lawrence Herbert School of Communications

ALL GUESTS (Hofstra students, faculty and staff, as well as visitors) who attend a Hofstra University-sponsored indoor event must be fully vaccinated.

Information: Call 516-463-6585 or email RaceCultureSocialJustice@hofstra.edu.

 HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

Evidence of vaccination will be required at time of entry with Hofstra Pride Pass or proof of vaccination and government ID. Masks covering over your mouth and nose, must be worn at ALL indoor events on campus. More at hofstra.edu/togetheragain.