

APPLICATION TO PARTICIPATE IN UNIVERSITY SENATE

With submission of this application, I certify that I am interested in being part of the shared governance process at Hofstra University. I understand that if I meet the GPA eligibility requirements to serve, I will be eligible to run in the general election to serve as an elected student senator on the University Senate for a term of one year during the 2024-2025 academic year. I understand I am running for the position of an elected student senator but may be considered for the position of senator-at-large. After the general election one student will be elected as University Senator and will serve as Chairperson of the Student Affairs Committee for a one-year term. If elected I understand I must be able to attend full University Senate meetings held at 1pm on the second Monday of each month. I understand that by submitting this intention to run I possess the desire to work with and through the various University Senate committees to improve Hofstra University's overall campus experience.

Elections will be held online through the Hofstra Portal:
for Graduate Students and Law Students: 9am October 1 to 5pm October 2
