

JIBL: CALL FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STUDENT PAPERS

$500 Award for the Best Two Papers

Submission Deadline: November 1, 2022

Established in 1999, The Journal of International Business and Law (JIBL) is a student-run, semi-annual double-blind nationally recognized publication produced jointly by the Maurice A. Deane School of Law and the Frank G. Zarb School of Business at Hofstra University. The journal explores the interaction of business and law in the global marketplace. Typical authors consist of professors, law and business practitioners, and students.

JIBL is calling for papers from current undergraduate/ graduate students and recent alumni for the International Business Section. Submitted papers will enter a double-blind review process. High-quality papers will be chosen for publication in the journal with the top two receiving an award of $500. We encourage you to pursue the honor of publishing in JIBL.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION

Award

The Journal publishes two issues per year. High-quality papers will be published in the journal and the best student papers per issue will be awarded a $500 cash prize.

Authors

Students enrolled as either undergraduate or graduate students at Hofstra at the time of submission. You may co-author with professors, practitioners, or other students. Priority for the $500 award given to papers written by students only or a student as the lead author.

Content

The manuscript should be original and academic in nature, which means it should explain a phenomenon from a theoretical or empirical perspective, rather than a newspaper or magazine article type, an industry or corporation analysis report, or a strategic plan. It must not have been published or accepted for publication elsewhere.

The manuscript should focus on the field of international business which is loosely defined as “any situation where the production or distribution of goods or services crosses country borders.” The topic can be related to any area of business.

Manuscript format: Please follow the Journal of International Business Studies \(JIBS\) Style. For sample writings, visit JIBL Article-Archive

Deadline

Submit the full paper by November 1, 2022, for the Fall issue.
