

David S. Mack Fitness Center Policies

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY.

- An employee's spouse/domestic partner must present valid proof of relationship to purchase a membership to the David S. Mack Fitness Center at Hofstra University. A valid membership card must be presented to gain entry to the facility at all times. Exceptions will not be made.
- Spouses/domestic partners are not permitted to sign in guests.
- Members may utilize the David S. Mack Fitness Center during standard hours of operation unless otherwise noted. Please note that the Center follows Hofstra's academic year calendar and will have modified hours and/or closures during certain times of the year (such as major holidays, winter intersession, spring break, and summer).
- Members are not permitted to participate in any recreational event or intramural program. Participation in other daily activities is permitted, with the exception of personal training.
- The David S. Mack Fitness Center is primarily a student facility. University and student events will, at all times, take priority, and the entire facility or designated areas are subject to closure without advance notification.
- Transfer of membership is prohibited, and no refunds will be given.
- Private instruction is prohibited in all areas of the facility.
- Proper gym attire is required in designated areas (weight room and gymnasium).
- Locker usage is available on a daily basis only. Padlocks are recommended to secure valuables. Locks left overnight will be removed. Hofstra University and its staff are not responsible for lost or missing items.
- The following are not permitted within the facility: smoking, filming/photography/audio recording, and solicitation of any material.
- All patrons are expected to leave the facility 10 minutes prior to closing daily.
- Hofstra University reserves the right to revoke membership privileges at its discretion; membership fees will not be refunded.

Please become familiar with all other rules and regulations posted throughout the facility.
