

 HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES

Lifelong Learning Lecture Series

Every Monday
(except school holiday)

Hofstra Oak
Street Center
Room 122

Come in person or Online (Zoom link below*)

Featuring speakers and members from PEIR Personal Enrichment In Retirement.

Open to the Hofstra community - students, faculty, administrators, staff, and PEIR members.

Any questions, please contact George Liao at (516) 463-5301
or email George.H.Liao@hofstra.edu

April 2025

Morning (10am-11:30am)

- April 7, 10:00-11:30 AM
Joseph and His Brothers Ted Pollak
- April 14, 10:00-11:30 AM
Day of Poetry. Micky Friedman and Others
- April 21, 10:00-11:30 AM
Napoleon & Wellington Meet at the Battle of Waterloo Art Mattson
- April 28, 10:00-11:30 AM
Activating Intelligence - A Developmental Perspective on How Intelligence Changes Over Time Stavros Valenti

Afternoon (1pm-2:30pm)

- April 7, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
The Battle of Plattsburg - Turing Point in the War of 1812. Art Mattson
- April 14, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
Short Stories: Callisthenics, Poison Ivy & Final Cut Steve Kalka
- April 21, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
Science & Engineering Updates Dave Paris
- April 28, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
The New Generation of Worker: Perspective & Priorities Kirby Veevers

* Zoom link: <https://hofstra.zoom.us/j/2679850251>

The SHS Lifelong Learning Lecture Series focuses on timely, interesting, and important topics. Who should attend? Anyone who is curious about the world around them, who has a growth mindset and who is committed to lifelong personal and professional development.