

 HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES

Lifelong Learning Lecture Series

Every Monday
(except school holiday)

Hofstra Oak
Street Center
Room 122

In person or Online (Zoom link below*)

Featuring speakers from PEIR *Personal Enrichment
In Retirement.*

Open to the Hofstra students, faculty, administrators, staff, and PEIR members.

Any questions, please contact (516) 463-5301
or email SOHS@hofstra.edu

MAY 2025

Morning (10am-11:30am)

- May 5, 10:00-11:30 AM
Short stories – “Lady with The Dog” by Anton Chekhov and “The Lady With The Pet Dog” by Joyce Carol Oates.
Ron Susser
- May 12, 10:00-11:30 AM
The Presidential Election of 1960.
Al Drattell
- May 19, 10:00-11:30 AM
The Evolution of Media and Communication. Jeffrey S. Morosoff,
Assoc. Professor, Chair Dept. of Journalism. Media Studies and Public Relations
- May 26, NO CLASSES – MEMORIAL DAY

Afternoon (1pm-2:30pm)

- May 5, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
How To Live Safer.
Walter Markowitz, EdD, Assoc.
Professor of Health Admin., School of Health Sciences, Hofstra
- May 12, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
Understanding Higher Education.
Herman Berliner, PhD,
Professor of Economics,
Former Dean of Zarb Business School,
Former Provost, Hofstra University
- May 19, 1 PM - 2:30 PM
Pituitary Gland Malfunctions.
Jackie Schwartz
- May 26, NO CLASSES – MEMORIAL DAY

* Zoom link: <https://hofstra.zoom.us/j/2679850251>

The SHS Lifelong Learning Lecture Series focuses on timely, interesting, and important topics. Who should attend? Anyone who is curious about the world around them, who has a growth mindset and who is committed to lifelong personal and professional development.